WELCOME

Dear Participants,

Welcome to the Third Annual Meeting of the PPE Society! The Society and our Annual Meeting have grown exponentially over the past three years, and we are excited this year to have three full days of sessions. Thank you to every attendee, moderator, and presenter, as you each play a valuable role in the success of the conference.

This program contains information about the various sessions that will be held during the conference. Most are concurrent, but we do have two keynote addresses, one by Carol Graham (on Thursday) and one by Al Roth (on Saturday). Receptions will follow both keynote addresses. The days will be filled to the brim, but the evenings are free for you to enjoy New Orleans and the company of a fascinating group of people.

The PPE Society's mission is to encourage the interaction and cross-pollination of three intellectual disciplines that are historically deeply intertwined and continue to have much to offer one another. If you have not already, please join the PPE Society (which you can do at <http://ppesociety.web.unc.edu/join-the-ppe-society/>).

If you have any suggestions about how we might effectively pursue our mission, please do not hesitate to pass them on to me. In the meantime, please enjoy the PPE Society's 2019 conference!

Cordially,
Geoff Sayre-McCord
Founder & Executive Director

New Orleans Suggestions

FOOD:

Upscale, classic New Orleans:
Commander's Palace, Galatoire's, Arnaud's, Antoine's

Upscale, but more modern:
Cochon, Herbsaint, La Petite Grocery, Coquette, Peche, Shaya, Compere Lapin

Cheaper, but great:
Central Grocery (for Muffulettas), Parkway Bakery and Tavern (for Po Boys), Company Burger (for burgers), Juan's Flying Burrito (for Mexican food), Cafe du Monde (for beignets)

Vegetarian, vegan, and gluten-free:
Goldberg's, Seed, Carmo, Green Goddess

ALSO WORTH CHECKING OUT:

Sucre, which is a great bakery where you can get all kinds of confections, but probably most notably some great macarons.

Bars:

The Carousel Bar, The Sazerac Bar, and for anyone interested in something kind of kitschy but still fun: Lafitte's Blacksmith Shop Bar, which is reputed to be the oldest bar in the US.

Music:

Just walk up Frenchmen St. at night: The best known places along there are probably The Spotted Cat Music Club and Three Muses.

Other places not on Frenchmen that are solid: Tipitina's and the House of Blues.

OTHER STUFF TO DO:

US National WWII Museum, New Orleans Museum of Art, New Orleans Pharmacy Museum, City Park, Audubon Park, take the street car down St. Charles and look at all of the architecture.
